Wonder Walls Graffiti Workshops

Fridays 8th, 15th, 22nd & 29th May, 5.30pm-7.30pm Tickets Free | Advance Booking Required Workshop Room & Outdoors

13-17 years

Over four Friday evening workshops, participants will learn street art and graffiti techniques with a Waterford Walls artist. Design, create and work together to create an original outdoor piece of art. If you don't secure a spot, join us for drop-in sessions on June 6th and get involved in the creativity.

Brought to you by the team behind Waterford Walls - The Walls Project. Funded by Creative Ireland.

Outline Youth Dance Project

Sat 30 May – Sat 06 Jun 2026, 11am-1.30pm Tickets Free | Advance Booking Required Workshop Room & Outdoors

13-18 years

Join us for a free, fun-filled week-long movement project inspired by the colourful scribbles, shapes and playful energy of Lucy Hill's summer exhibition Colourings. Together we'll explore how lines, loops and bursts of colour can come alive through dance, movement and performance in public spaces.

Colourings Family Day

Create and play in our Creative Response Space

Location: Draíocht's First Floor Gallery Tickets: Free | No pre-booking required Times: Drop In Sessions 12pm-3pm Ages: 6+ | younger siblings welcome, with the assistance of an adult

6+ years

Join artists Sarah Ward and Michelle Hall for this workshop using a variety of colourful and tactile materials. Drawing inspiration from the exhibition 'Colourings', by Lucy Hill, where interesting colours and exciting shapes join forces, this workshop will help you and your child to further explore and engage with colour and shapes, together with our artists. So, come along to draw, make, play and create!

Wonder Walls for Cruinniú na nÓg invites you to unleash your creativity through vibrant, collaborative murals. We will work together in this hands-on workshop alongside a professional artist to create an outdoor wall mural. Come along and learn a bit about street art, use spray paints and stencils to make an original piece of graffiti art.

Dreamer's Space Trail

Create A Character Location: Draíocht's Foyer Tickets: Free | No pre-booking required Times: Drop In Sessions 1pm-3pm Ages: 6-13 years

6-13 years

Meet artist Corrina Askin who will introduce you to her Dreamer's Space Trail in our foyer. Meet her loveable characters and then create your own character to add to our Trail. After drawing your characters or putting your thoughts and ideas on paper, we'll cut them out and temporarily place them in their new home. Could one of your characters live here?

OutLine is a playful dance-theatre performance for public spaces inspired by the joyful, energetic scribbles at the heart of Lucy Hill's summer exhibition 'Colourings'. This new dance piece explores how simple marks - lines, loops, squiggles and bursts of colour - can shape movement, relationships and the spaces around us.
