Cruinniú na nÓg 2024

A day of free creativity
for children and young people

Saturday 15th June 2024

fingal.ie

Creative Fingal proudly present Cruinniú na nÓg, a celebration of youthful creativity across our vibrant communities. This year, having embraced invaluable insights from the Voice of the Child Survey, Fingal Libraries have tailored their programming to resonate with the passions and interests of young people living in Fingal. Our ten library branches will host author visits, music recitals, arts and crafts workshops, coding classes, and much more.

Experience the inaugural Night-Time Economy event, hosted by Fingal Libraries and Garageland GalaxyZ, exclusively tailored for teenagers at Millennium Park, Blanchardstown. Featuring live performances by young talents on both the main and busking stages, alongside music industry workshops throughout the day, it is a unique opportunity for teenage creativity to shine.

Fingal Arts Office, in collaboration with the Irish School Orchestra, have created the Orchestral Odyssey. This event has seen 3 schools in Swords host the 33-piece orchestra in their halls. It culminates on June 15th with children and their families invited to partake in an immersive experience in the newly renovated Carnegie Library on North Street, Swords.

There will be something for everyone this June 15th, make sure to book your place!

Storytrail in Santry Demesne Park

*A tree has leaves that turn sunshine into tree food. Amazing!
Only a tree knows how to be a tree.*

Based on the book written and illustrated by Mary Murphy and published by Otter-Barry Books, Fingal's third story trail meanders through the idyllic landscape of Santry Demesne. Here the vibrant joyful illustrations of 'Only a Tree Knows How to be a Tree' come to life, bringing the reader on a self-paced journey around our wonderful and varied world. Children will learn about the special nature of every living thing, including themselves!

The Storytrail project aims to create a family experience that blends creativity, literacy, and exercise in a fun and interactive way. Here, the beauty of storytelling intertwines with the serenity of the outdoors, bringing families on a memorable journey of discovery.

Away with the Birds with author Eve McDonnell

A fun, creative, illustration workshop using fingerprinting techniques. In 'The Last Boy', Brewster leaves a sooty trail of fingerprints wherever he goes! Let your imagination fly by creating a fun bird-on-a-wire scene using your own fingerprints! Do your bird scenes tell a story? Are they having a party? Or are they at flight school? A picture tells a thousand words.

Magical Memories with author Eve McDonnell

Piaf in 'The Chestnut Roaster' has an amazing ability – She can remember every event back to the moment she was born. This remarkable gift is not just make-believe – it is a super-rare condition known as hyperthymesia. How good is your memory? Eve brings you fun facts about how our memories work before we scribble down some of our best and oldest memories. Like Piaf, all your memories will be stored in a memory box before being shuffled and mashed up to create some fun and very imaginative stories!

Role-Play Village with Messy Adventures

This bespoke mobile Role-Play Village is the first of its kind in Ireland and was created with little adventurers in mind. At the Role-Play Village, children are given the unique opportunity to use their imagination and creativity whilst entering a world of make believe. Each of the destinations of our village represents a real-world scenario with miniature tools and utensils to immerse children in that specific role. Here children, and caregivers, are encouraged to learn through play!

Meet Fingal's Local Ambassador, Christian Campbell!

Name	Age	Class
Christian Campbell	13	6th class

Tell us about yourself?

I am 13 and love to act! I hope to become an actor in the future and right now, I am doing all my speech and drama exams for RIAM through The Little Duke Theatre. I also love music. I sing, play piano and guitar. I also love art and I draw and paint all the time! I love to build Lego and be as creative as possible. I really enjoy making videos for my YouTube channel with my Dad. I play football for my local team, and I love spending time with my family.

What is your earliest memory of creativity or a creative accomplishment?

When my Dad made a music video of me singing Walking in the Air when I was 5. RTÉ showed it on their website, and it got 600,000 views. It was so much fun.

When/how did you begin your favourite creative activity?

My Dad makes videos for famous people, so he always had a camera around and filmed me singing and acting. I was in a few little drama groups before joining The Little Duke Theatre. I've been there for 5 years now and I love it. My teachers are amazing. We are doing a new show soon and it's very exciting.

How do you feel when you're being creative?

It's very exciting and I feel really good about myself and working as part of a creative team. Everyone is always supporting each other and together we are creating a performance that will hopefully make people happy.

What advice would you give other young people to encourage their creativity?

Don't give up if you have a dream! Keep it alive and work hard towards making it happen.

Who is your creative hero and why?

My creative hero is Billy Joe Armstrong from the band Green Day. I love his lyrics and his music and the way he can tell a great story through his songs. I am going to see him live in July with my Dad and I can't wait!

Finish the Sentence: "Creativity is..."

Creativity is a strong and unique power that everyone has inside them.

In your own words, what's the best thing about Ireland having Cruinniú na nÓg, a national day celebrating creativity for young people?

It's amazing because it gives all young people a way to show off their creativity in ways that they are already good at and some brand-new things that they might not have ever tried or had the chance to before! It's so good for your wellbeing.

Is there anything else exciting you'd like to tell us?

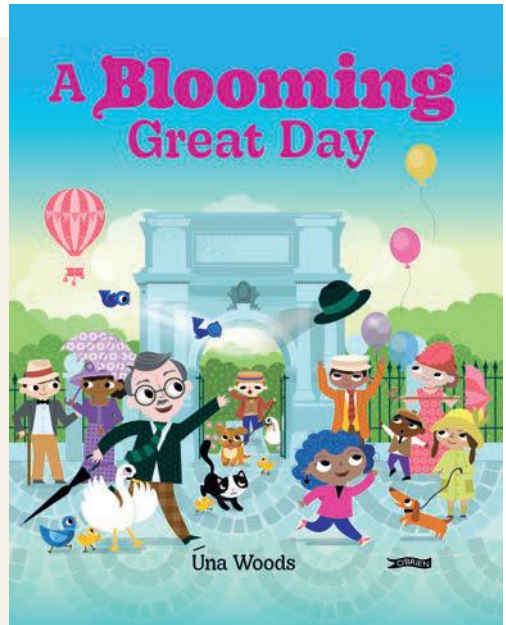

I am super proud to be a Local Ambassador and I hope I can help other young people my age whenever possible. It really is an honour and I'm very grateful to be asked.

Storytelling and Paper People Making Workshop with author/illustrator Úna Woods

Go back in time to 1904 and join Author/Illustrator Úna Woods as she reads her new picture book 'A Blooming Great Day'. Make paper people from the past and design outfits that you might wear if you travelled back to 1904.

The Happy Prince: A Musical Recitation with Maria & Cecilia Henderson

The Happy Prince by Liza Lehmann is a dramatic recitation for speaker and piano based on the short story by Oscar Wilde. 'The Happy Prince' tells the story of a prince who was made into a golden statue after he died. In life, he lived a sheltered, happy life, but in death he saw all the suffering throughout his city. He befriends a swallow who has been separated from his flock and, together, they help the poor of the city. The story is beautiful, but the ending is bittersweet.
