As Cathaoirleach of Fingal County Council, I wish to welcome you to Draiocht Arts Centre, for the fifth Fingal International Photo Fest Exhibition 2004. This is a unique initiative by Fingal County Council to bring together photographers from many European countries along side our local Fingal based photo groups.

I am proud to say that Fingal County Council is in the forefront of arts development in Ireland today. We have every reason to be proud of our record of arts development within Fingal. This magnificent arts centre, Draiocht, is owned and funded by Fingal County Council, and is the focal point for creative expression within Fingal. I welcome the continued development of the international element of our arts service, especially as it affords us the unique opportunity to see at first hand photographic images from communities, not unlike Fingal, from mainland Europe.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the staff of our Arts Office, under our Arts Officer, Rory O'Byrne, who have championed this work over the past decade, and are responsible for the strong international cultural links we now enjoy. The work of our Arts Office is central to our role, as a progressive, modern Local Authority, and I would like to offer my continued support to this important area, and once again thank everyone for their efforts.

Enjoy the photographs in this wonderful exhibition.

Cathaoirleach Cllr. Sean Dolphin
Fingal County Council

Welcome to the Fifth Fingal International Photo Fest 2004. This event has been organised and sponsored by the Arts Office of the Community, Recreation & Amenities Department of Fingal County Council.

Over the past twelve years Fingal County Council has identified 'photography' as a significant art form in Fingal. The Council has been instrumental in establishing and supporting nine photographic groups within the Fingal region. Fingal County Council has led in the creation of cultural links between our local photographic groups and similar groups throughout Europe.

I would like to pay special tribute to those whose hard work and commitment has made this important cultural event possible. Special thanks to Michael Johnson (former Staff Photographer for Fingal County Council) and to Anna Churcher (Festival Secretary) who have worked tirelessly over the past two years, to bring this exhibition to fruition.

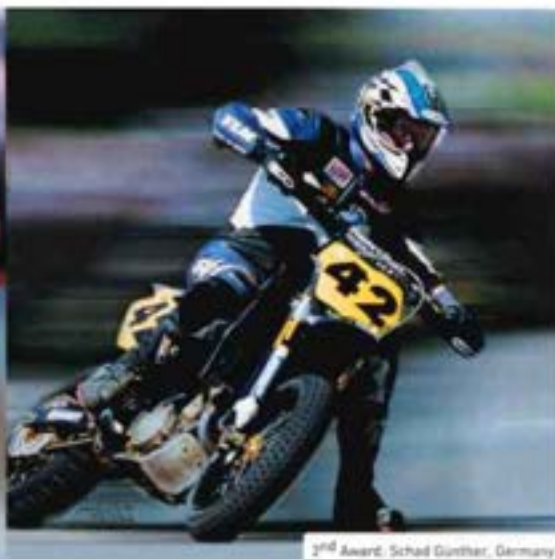

A word of thanks to our judges, Mr. Podge Kelly and Mr. James Delaney, both expert photographers, who argued long and hard over their decisions, our appreciation also goes to Fiachra O'Mathúna (Fingal Sports Partnership) and the staff of Draiocht Arts Centre, in particular the centres Director, Emer McGowan and the Visual Arts Officer, Carrisa Farrell.

Our congratulations go to the following award winning photographers: First Award: Mr. Gábor Takács (Hungary), Second Award: Mr. Schad Günther (Germany), Third Award: Mr. Stano Klajban (Slovakia). Finally, I would like to offer my sincere thanks to all the international photographers who sent entries, and took part in the Fifth International Photo Fest Exhibition 2004.
