

HOME THEATRE (IRELAND) project

Emer McGowan, Director Draíocht

Veronica Coburn, Artistic Director, Home Theatre

Maria Fleming, Project Manager, Home Theatre

HOME THEATRE (IRELAND) project

Home Theatre pairs 40 leading theatre makers with 30 community hosts and asks them to spend time together in the host's home to talk about what is important to them, about what they hope for and fear, about what makes them laugh, before writing a piece of theatre, "a gift", inspired by the host and performed in the host's own home to an invited audience.

HOME THEATRE (IRELAND) project

- All hosts will live in the D15 area
- All 30 plays are performed simultaneously on one night
- On October 6th 2018, 30 plays in 30 homes will be performed 3 times at 5pm, 7pm & 9pm.

HOME THEATRE (IRELAND) project

HOME THEATRE Ireland will involve three groups

Hosts

Ambassadors

Artists

HOME THEATRE (IRELAND) project

HOSTS

- Hosts must live in D15 -The role of the hosts involves
- Opening your home for three performances on October 6th at 5pm, 7pm and 9pm
- Participating in workshops across April to September
- Allow recording of project and engage in an evaluation throughout the project .

HOME THEATRE (IRELAND) project

AMBASSADORS

- Ambassadors should live in or near D15 and the role involves
- Engage in formal workshops with the hosts across April to September
- Attend meetings between the hosts and artists
- Attend and assist with all three performances on October 6th at 5pm, 7pm and 9pm
- Engage in an evaluation process throughout

HOME THEATRE (IRELAND) project

ARTISTS

- Artists have been identified by Veronica Coburn the Artistic Director of the HOME THEATRE project.
- The Artists are all professional theatre workers of various ages with an equal balance of male and female artists
- The Artists will be matched with an Ambassador and a host and will 'gift' a 20 minute play to be performed in the host's home.

HOME THEATRE (IRELAND) project

Dates of preparatory workshops

- April 7th 2018
- May 12th 2018
- June 9th 2018
- July 14th 2018
- August 11th 2018
- Performances Oct 6th 2018 -5pm, 7pm and 9pm